A man who is not proud of his ancestry will never leave after him anything for which his posterity may be proud of him.

--Edmund Burke.

History is the memory of time; the life of the dead, and the happiness of the living.

--Anonymous

To belong and to know yourself as belonging in history to a family, a nation, a state, a race, is to gain immediate meaning for life and strength for living.

FOREWORD

This is not a genealogy as most people think of one. I have not traced descendants of all the early lines. I do not have an extensive bibliography. In most instances I have cited the sources in the body of the book. I have worked on these lines since 1938 and have reams of correspondence from individuals, public officials, etc. Since very little has been written and published on many of these lines, in order to have anything, I have had to do a great deal of original research. I have visited cemeteries, worked in courthouses, the Library of Congress, National Archives, Indiana State Library, Virginia State Library, Kentucky State Library, Salt Lake City LDS Library, and in our Denver Public Library have been through Swem's Index and checked all available books and records.

This material was published first in the Colorado Genealogist. The headings which are superfluous here, were necessary in the magazine series. This has also meant that the material is not organized as it would be if first published in book form, so it is hoped the reader will overlook these details. The contents have been repaged and corrected as far as possible to date, additions made and index prepared.

I have tried to get as many ancestors of Willis FitzSimmons to the immigrant as possible. There are also some in England and France. Perhaps someone else can complete these lines. I have attempted to present as much information as possible about each ancestor. That is why I show the complete will, inventories and Bible records whenever I can. I have also included materials on some, not in the direct lines, but in the hope that the material will be helpful to others. Again, because of the lack of published materials, it has seemed advisable to make what I have available to others in the sincere hope that they will add to this and also make corrections when they find errors. In spite of care in collecting and assembling there are bound to be some errors. It would be most helpful if, when found, the reader will notify me so that they may be corrected.

All the descendants to date of Willis FitzSimmons are included here and as new ones arrive it is hoped that the records will be kept up to date.

The coats of arms were drawn by Bernice FitzSimmons Hathaway, Heraldic Artist.

SOME OF THE ROYAL AND ANCIENT LINES FROM WHICH WE TRACE OUR DESCENT

In paging and assembling the books it was realized that there are many more ancient and royal lines which are allied with the DeQuincy, and while these are available in some libraries, it was decided that they might be of special interest to the relatives.

These ancient and royal lines were worked out for the King of England some years ago, and as one genealogist expressed it: "If its accurate enough for the Kings and Queens its good enough for me."

It is impossible to give the entire lineage here, but I have attempted to give some of the lines from which we definitely descend. In the very early lines the origin of the Irish Kings is given, but is too lengthy to give here. It also traces the origin of the Stone of Destiny (Stone of Scone) now in the coronation chair at Westminster Abbey, said to be the stone upon which Jacob pillowed his head at Bethel. Through the centuries of the Irish Kings we come to:

- 89 Mureoah, 131st King of Ireland, A. D. 500 m. Eorca dau. of Lodharn of Scotland.
- 90 Fergus Mor Mac Eorca went to the assistance of his grandfather Lodharn in his war with the Picts; conquered them and on death of Lodharn became the first absolute monarch of Scotland. He borrowed the Stone of Destiny (Scone) to be crowned upon and kept it. All the Kings of Scotland were crowned on it until Edward I of England conquered Scotland and took it to England 1296 A.D.

KINGS OF SCOTLAND

- 91 Dongardus or Donart, King of Scotland; slain in battle.
- 92 Eochy or Achaius
- 93 Gabhran, was crowned King of Scotland, on the death of his brother Congallus. He married Ada youngest sister of Aurelius Ambrosius. d. 535
- 94 Aedhan was taken to Ireland by his mother after his father was murdered and was brought back by St. Columba and crowned King of Scotland. d. 604.
- 95 Eochaidh Buide (Eugenius IV) succeeded to the throne on the death of Kenneth Cöarr. d. 622.

- 96 Donald Breac succeeded his brother Ferguhard. He fought the British and compelled Cadwallo, their King, to restore Eufred, son of Ethelred, to his kingdom. He was accidentally drowned in the river Tay, 650 A.D.
- 97 Donart (or Dongarus)
- 98 A odh Fionn
- 99 Achaius or Eochy Rinnamail. He formed an alliance with Charlemagne, sent his brother as an ambassador to France and he assisted the Picts under King Hungus against Ethalstone, about 780 A.D.
- 100 Alpin defeated Feredeth at Restennet and he was defeated by Brodus. He was beheaded and his head stuck on the walls of Camelidon. Iona removed and buried it A.D. 834.
- 101 Kenneth McAlpin (Kenneth I). It was during his reign that the union of the Picts and Scots began. McAlpin succeeded to the throne of the Scots in 836 and on the death of Uven of the Picts he claimed that throne by right of his grandmother Urgusia, who was a sister of Ungus, King of the Picts. This was the beginning of the greatest period in Scottish history--843-1097, A.D. He died 858.
- 102 Constantine I, reigned 864 to 881. In 870 the Danes invaded Scotland and in 881 Constantine was killed in repelling them on the banks of the Forth. He was contemporary with the Alfred the Great in England.
- 103 Donald continued fighting the Danes and lost his life in 904, after killing the Danish leader.
- 104 Malcolm I, reigned from 942 to 958.
- 105 Kenneth II, reigned from 971 to 994.
- 106 Malcolm II, reigned from 1005 to 1040 A.D. He had two daughters: Bethor married Crinan, and was mother of his successor; Doda married Synel and had a son MacBeth.
- 107 Bethoc or Beatrice married Crinan, Lord of the Isles 975-1045.
- 108 Duncan 1001-1040. During his reign the North and West of Scotland were conquered by the Norsemen under Thorfin and MacBeth. Mormaer of Norway, his cousin, joined with the invaders and put Duncan to death in 1041. (read Shakespeare's MacBeth). He married Elgifa daughter of Ethelred II of England. qv
- 109 Malcolm III 1031-1093, slew MacBeth at Lumhanan in 1057 and recovered the lost provinces. He married Ingeborg, the widow

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

My sincere thanks to:

My father, for supplying what information he had.

Marvin and Sylvia Ellis, of Kentucky, for many of the pictures, Bible records and all the help they gave me on my two visits with them and through the correspondence of years.

Mr. Kenneth FitzSimmons of California, for helping assemble the descendants of my Grandfather.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Winfrey, of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Beverly FitzSimmons of Arizona.

Mrs. Kate Ravenscraft.

Mrs. Inkie Ravenscraft Taylor, Ashland, Kansas.

Mrs. Frank, of Lebanon, Mo.

Mrs. Ernest Ewers of Illinois, for binding this book.

Col. M. P. Ellis, Alabama.

Mrs. Nelda Paul, Indiana.

Mrs. Burton Wands of California.

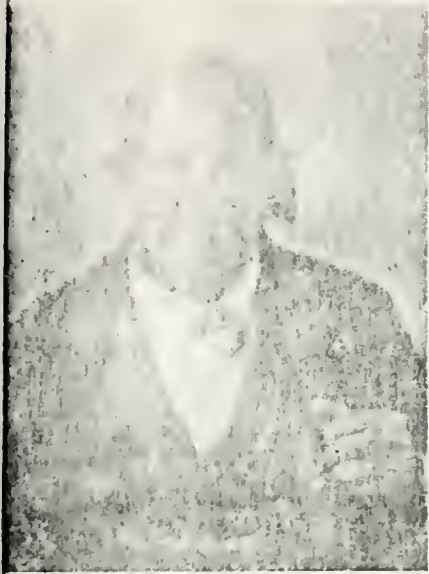

Miss Mary Baden, Maryland.

Many others, too numerous to mention.

To the librarians who were so helpful, I wish to extend my special thanks, and most particularly to the Genealogy Division of the Denver Public Library.

Mrs. Gerald Young, Indiana.

Mr. R. E. Caughron, official typist for the Colorado Genealogical Society, without whose infinite patience in typing and running this material, this book would not have been completed.

ELIZABETH ROBERTS REDDING
WIFE OF REUBEN REDDING

Reuben's picture in center preceding page. Elizabeth's photograph was in my possession, but since I did not know her maiden name, I did not include her in the printed pictures. The day that the page of pictures was finished, I learned her name. In Farquier County, Virginia records is the following: Reuben Redding and Elizabeth Roberts m. 26 January 1789. George Roberts, witness. Went from Va. to Shelby Co. Kentucky. Buried in old cemetery at Shelbyville, where Public Library now stands. Inventory of Reuben's estate 4 Oct. 1842. Elizabeth died before 1866.

I hope to learn more of the Roberts family.

REDDING AND ALLIED LINES

Compiled by
Bernice FitzSimmons Hachaway

In this and following issues will be found some of the early Virginia lines and as many as possible of those who went to Kentucky from Virginia. Many of them settled in Shelby County just after the Revolutionary War. Most of them were around Shelbyville and Bagdad and many of their descendants still live there.

With succeeding issues there will be additional information regarding those whose names appear on the charts, along with wills, Bible records and coats of arms.

The accompanying charts are some of the ancestors of my grandfather Willis FitzSimmons. His descendants will appear later.

The Aston and Perkins arms are used in this issue because of the ancient lines which are written up in addition to the charts.

THE ASTON ANCESTRY

ARMS--Argent, a fess sable, and in chief three lozenges sable.

CREST--A bull's head couped or, armed argent, the tips of the horns sable.

SUPPORTERS--Two Roman Knights, armed proper, faces hands and knees bare, habergeons sable, swords, hilts and chapes or.

MOTTOES--MUMINI ET PALRIAE ASTO (above)

CONTRA EL REPIDO MUORO (below)

Scottish Peerages vol. I, p.414

In several Virginia publications is found the statement that Walter Aston was a great grandson of Sir Walter Aston of Tixhall, Stafford. In Brown's Genesis of the United States is a statement that he was a cousin of Walter Aston, Baron Aston of Forfar. The ancestry of these men is well known. None of these publications give the line of descent.

In the Visitation of London 1634 is found the following pedigree:

Abstract: The reaction of hydrogen peroxide with sodium hydrogen sulfate has been studied in aqueous solution at various temperatures. The reaction is first order with respect to the concentration of hydrogen peroxide and zero order with respect to the concentration of sodium hydrogen sulfate. The rate of reaction increases with increasing temperature. The activation energy for the reaction is 14,500 calories per mole.

Sir Walter Aston & Elizabeth Leveson of Titchall

Leonard Aston
of Longdon

Walter Aston & Joyce Mason

Thomas Simon Walter "now in West Indies"

It was common practice then to speak of those who had come to America as being "in the West Indies" and this must refer to Walter Aston of Virginia. This pedigree may be assumed to be correct, except for the fact that Leonard Aston was not the son of Sir Walter Aston, but his next younger brother, both being sons of Sir Edward Aston. Both Burke's Peerages and the Scots Peerages account fully for the children of Sir Walter Aston and there was no Leonard. Burke places Leonard as the second son of Sir Edward Aston. The complete ancestry of Walter Aston is therefore:

- 1 Randal de Ashton (or Aston) lived in time of Edward I.
- 2 Roger de Aston. Purchased Raywood and Longdon 1260 A.D.
- 3 Sir Roger Aston, Kt. married Joyce, sister and co-heiress of Sir Baldwin de Treville.
- 4 Sir Robert Aston, Kt. of Parkhall, married Isabel, daughter of Sir William Brereton of Brereton, Staffordshire.
- 5 Sir John de Aston, Sheriff of Stafford, married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir John Delves of Dodington, Cheshire.
- 6 Sir John de Aston, K.B. married Joan, daughter of Sir William Littleton of Frankley, Worcester.
- 7 Sir Edward Aston of Titchall married Joan, daughter of Sir Thomas Bowles of Penho castle.
- 8 Leonard Aston of Longdon, born ca 1532. Wife's name not known. He was the second son.
- 9 Walter Aston of Longdon married Joyce, daughter of . . . Mason of Hougham in Warwick.
- 10 Walter Aston of Virginia, born 1606/7, died Apr. 6, 1656 and buried at Westover. Married (1) Miss . . . Narbow who was living 1634, (2) Hannah . . .

Sir Walter Aston's stag hunt at Titchall Park was the last time that Mary Stuart, Queen of Scots, rode a horse and had any freedom for there on August 16, 1586 she was told that the plot to kill Queen Elizabeth, in which she was innocently involved, had been discovered. She was held at Tixhall 17 days.

daughter of William Herley of Breconscroft castle, Shropshire.

7 Sir William Littleton, d. 1507, married Eliyn, daughter and co-heiress of Willice Walsh of Wenlip.

8 Joan Littleton married Sir John de Aston and brought him the estates of Tixhall in Stafford and Wenlip in Leicestershire.

PERKINS ANCESTRY

ARMS: Argent--an eagle displayed sable in Canton gold, a fesse dauncette between seven billets sable, on each an erminery.

CREST: On a wreath argent and sable, a pineapple branch vert, the apple in his proper couler mantled gules argent.

These arms are found on the grave stones of Upton Court and were in use by the Perkins of Virginia.

The Virginia Perkins ancestral home was Upton Court, Berks. Their history dates from about 1400 A.D. and can be found in "History of Upton Court" by Mary Sharp, published by Elliott Stock of London.

1 John Perkins, received Feb. 23, 1400 a grant of land from King Henry IV

2 William Perkins, the first to be styled "Lord of Upton Court", married Margaret . . .

3 Thomas Perkins in 1451 inherited his father's estate.

4 John Perkins in 1478 inherited the estates; married Margaret Colles.

5 Richard Perkins, after the death of older brother, Thomas, who was childless, inherited the estates, 1524. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir John Mompesson. He added the Colles arms to his and was the first to use the crest.

6 Richard Perkins in 1571 inherited the estates. He married Anna Plowden, daughter of a distinguished lawyer.

7 Richard Perkins succeeded his father. He married Margaret Eyston of Catenore, and in 1634 sailed from England in the "Bona Ventura" for Virginia.

8 Nicholas Perkins married Elizabeth Harding, dau. of Constantine Harding. He settled on Tuckahoe Creek in Henrico (later Goochland) County, Va.

- 9 Nicholas Perkins of Henrico married Sarah, daughter of Abraham Childress of Henrico. He died between June 1711 and Feb. 1712. (Will has been published in Colorado Genealogist).
 - 10 Constantine Perkins of Goochland married Anne Pollard. He died 1761. (Will published in Colorado Genealogist).
 - 11 Elizabeth Perkins married Joseph Ellis. (She is mentioned in father's will as Elizabeth Ellis). (See charts)

PERKINS

WILL OF NICHOLAS N. PERKINS - 1711
Richmond, Virginia

In the name of God, Amen, I, Nicholas N. Perkins, being sick of body, but sound of mind, perfect sense & understanding, thanks be to the Almighty for the same. Therefore have tho't fit & proper to make, ordaine & constitute this last will & testament in the manner & form as follows:

First I give & bequeath my soul unto the Merciful hands of Almighty God, who gave it, & my body to the earth to be decently buried according to directions of my Executor herein named. And as for worldly goods, as it hath pleased Almighty God to bestow, as follows:

I give & bequeath unto my son Phil (note: Phil for Philemon, named for Philomen Childress, father of Sarah Childress Perkins) all my land between Spring Branch & Abram Childers' (Note: Abram Childers or Childress was an uncle--brother of Sarah) to him & his heirs forever, & my will is that he pay my gr.dau., Eliza Perkins, dau. of my son Nicholas, deceased, 15 lbs. of current money, being in consideration of land designated for her father, whereon he once dwelt before his death.

I give & bequeath to son Richard, the plantation whereon I now live, to him & his heirs. Also 1 feather bed & furniture, 2 breeding sows, 1 iron pot, 1 chest, & 2 pewter dippers.

I give to my son Abram that plantation I bought of John Pledge, by estimation 100 acres; also that piece of land I have lying between 1st land bought of Pledge & Spring Branch, 50 acres, 1 feather bed & furniture; 2 breeding sows, 1 iron pot, 1 chest, 2 pewter dippers.

I give unto dau. Sarah (Note--named for mother) 1 feather bed & furniture, 2 pewter dippers

I give unto dau. Elizabeth 1 feather bed & furniture; 2 pewter dippers.

I give unto my dau. Mary, wife of Amos Seal, 2 ewes, 1 brass kettle & 2 pewter dippers

I give & will my son Constantin, 5 lbs. current money of Va. (Note: previously--1703-- Nicholas N. deeded Constantin 100 acres on N. side of James River.)

My will and pleasure is that all my cattle be equally divided between my sons, Richard & Abram & dau. Elizabeth.

My will is that each of my children shall have their share when they arrive at legal age or day of marriage.

All the remainder of my estate I will to my beloved wife, whom I appoint sole executor of this my last will & testament, hereby revoking all others. In witness thereof I have given my hand & affixed my seal.

THE COCKE LINE

Authorities differ as to the ancestry of Lt. Col. Richard Cocke, b. 1600, to Virginia 1627.

We find in the Visitations of Hertfordshire, 1572, a long line going back to a William Cook. The names William, John and Richard appear frequently, but I have not made a definite connection.

It is said that our Richard is son of Walter Cocke of Longden of Stafford Co. England.

In the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, Vol. III, we have an excellent write-up on Richard Cocke of Henrico and his descendants. It is too copious to include all of it here, but what follows is our direct line.

GENEALOGY OF THE COCKE FAMILY OF VIRGINIA Prepared by James C. Southall

RICHARD COCKE OF HENRICO-HIS DESCENDANTS

1. Richard Cocke,¹ born about 1600; died 1665. Married twice. Name of first wife not known; married, second, Mary Aston. Children by both wives. Was County Commandant or Lieutenant-Colonel of the county of Henrico. Was a member of the Grand Assembly or House of Burgesses, 1632, from Weyanoake, and in 1644 and 1654 from Henrico. His relative, Thomas Jordan, represented Warroquyake in the Assembly of 1632. Another member at this time was Walter Aston (Ashton), who was the father of Mary Aston, Richard Cocke's second wife, as mentioned above. Another member of this Assembly was John Smith, who represented Smythe's Mount and Peryces Point. He was the ancestor of Obadiah Smith, who married Mary Cocke³, daughter of William Cocke,² about 1685-90.

The presence of Richard Cocke in this Assembly was inadvertently overlooked in referring to the matter in our article in the January number. The record is wanting from 1632 to 1644 except for one year. In the year 1655, having been appointed sheriff, he resigned his seat in the House of Burgesses. We take occasion also to mention that the first land patented by Richard Cocke (3000 acres in 1636) was for the bringing over of sixty persons, a list of whom is given in the books of the Land Office, and among them is the name of Margaret Powell, a fact to which we shall advert again hereafter.

In the will of Richard Cocke¹ there is a legacy to his "cousin Daniel Jordan." Samuel Jordan was a member of the first Legislative Assembly in Virginia from Charles City (1619); his plantation was called in the alliterative style of that day, "Jordan's Journey."

Thomas Jordan was Burgess for Isle of Wight 1629, 31, 32. Richard Jordan was a Burgess in 1676 and sheriff of Nansemond in 1718. George Jordan was a Burgess from James City county in 1644. The name Jordan was also a prominent one at the beginning of the eighteenth century in Bristol Parish (Prince George). Dr. Slaughter writes: "The representative names" (in this parish) "were Wood, Jordan, Poythress, Wynne, Hatcher, Cooke, Hamlin, Eppes, Bolling, Bland, Jones, Randolph, Kennon, Bott, Batte, Gilliam, Walker, Munford etc.," p.121.

Lieutenant-Colonel Walter Aston (his tomb is at Westover) was in the House of Burgesses for Shirley Hundreds and Charles City in 1629-30, 1631-32, 1632, 1632-3 and 1642-3.

When Richard Cooke died, Mary Aston (Ashton) married, second, Colonel Edward Hill, of Charles City, a very great man in that day. His descendants owned "Shirley" on James River, and intermarried with the Carters (Hill Carter.) About 1750 one of the Bowler Cokes married the daughter of Colonel Edward Hill, the widow of Colonel John Carter of "Corotoman."

There were Ashtons in the 17th century also in Elizabeth City and Northumberland. In 1655 Peter Ashton was a Burgess from Elizabeth City, and in 1658 from Northumberland and is called "Colonel Ashton." The tomb of Colonel Henry Ashton, 1731, is in Westmoreland, with family arms.

Brown (see Genesis of United States) affirms that Lieutenant-Colonel Walter Ashton's cousin was ambassador to Spain, 1635.

The will of Richard Cooke¹ is on record in Henrico County Clerk's Office, and bears date October 4, 1665. The witnesses are Henry Randolph* (then clerk of the House of Burgesses) and Henry Isham.

He left issue, five sons and one daughter: 1. Thomas², 2. Richard,² 3. John², 4. William², 5. Richard² "the younger," 6. Elizabeth².

"In the name of God Amen" (his will commences), "I, Richard Cooke, Sen'r, being atpresent in perfect health and memorie for which I render hearty thanks to Almighty God my Creator, yet considering the uncertainty of this transitory life I have therefore for the peaceable settling that little Estate God in his Goodness hath given me made and ordained this my last will and testament hereby revearsing all former wills at any time made by me. Imprimis I beg to bequeath my soule to God that gave it trusting in the meritts of my Redeemer to obtaine a joyfull Resurrection" -- and his "body to be Interred according to the usuale Solemnities of the Church of England."

He devises and bequeaths one-third of his estate to his wife for life. He divides his lands among his sons--some 600 acres to each of his sons and 1100 to his daughter, and divides his personality equally among his children (except two negroes and some cattle, &c., given Richard, Sr., by his mother).

He devises some land to his cousin Daniel Jordan.

And appoints his son Thomas to see after "the mill" for the use of his younger brothers and sisters, for which he was to be paid three thousand pds. of tobacco and caske p. Annum" (equal to about $700 a year at present.)

*This is a different line from William Randolph of "Turkey Island," who did not come to Virginia till 1674. He was Wm. Randolph's uncle.

Captain Henry Randolph came over in 1637. In 1656 he was clerk of Henrico county. In 1660 he was made clerk of the House of Burgesses. In 1665 William Tanner or William Randolph was clerk of Henrico. In 1678 William Randolph was clerk. In 1683, Henry Randolph. In 1693-1707, James Cocke. In 1679 Peter Field was guardian of Henry Randolph, aged 13.

THE COCKE FAMILY

Above Malvern Hill, on the creek, in the year 1700, were Stephen and William Cocke,³ and about half-way between the Malvern House and the head of the creek still stands the line of an old dam, where stood Thomas Cocke's mill. Half a mile still farther, at the head of the creek, Carter's Mill (Shirley) is still standing.

4. William Cocke², born 1655; died 1693. He married first, Jane Clarke, in 1678; and second, Sarah Flower, about 1689. He left three children: William³, #Mary³ and Elizabeth³. This William Cocke³ was no doubt the William Cocke whose daughter, Sarah in 1723 married Captain Henry Wood.

Jane Clarke was the daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel Daniel Clarke, of Charles City county, possibly the son of Captain John Clarke, "an Englishman by nation, a native of London, and of the same religion as his King" (See Brown); died in Va., 1623. The Henrico Records mention a judgment against estate of Lieutenant-Colonel Daniel Clarke, late guardian of Lieutenant-Colonel Richard Cocke's orphans, for £500 sterling.

Sarah Flower was of James City county. In the "William & Mary Quarterly" for April, 1894, page 1, is an epitaph from a tomb in Gloucester county (Abingdon Parish), the grave of Jeffrey Flower, who died in 1726. The arms of the family are on the tomb, and are "those of Flower, of Chilton, county Wilts. Sa. a unicorn pass., or on a chief ar."

#This Mary Cooke³ married Obadiah Smith and these were the parents of Obadiah Smith of Westham, Chesterfield County, whose daughter, Lucy Smith, was the second wife of James Powell Cocke.

It was not unusual in those days for brothers to have the same Christian name.

Descent from Saire de Quincey, Surety for Magna Charta

From Magna Charta, by John Wurts, Part V, pp. 1029, 1200.

- I. 1. Saire de Quincey, Surety, 1154-1219, married Margaret, daughter of Robert de Bellomont (Beaumont) and his wife Petronella Granteemesnil.
2. Roger de Quincey, 2nd son, held his brother's estates while he was in the Holy Land, and succeeded as Earl of Winchester 1235. In that year in right of his wife Helen MacDonal, daughter of Alan MacDonal and his wife Margaret, daughter of Prince David, grandson of King David I of Scotland, Roger became lord high constable of Scotland.
3. Margaret Quincey married William de Ferrers, 7th Earl of Derby, died 1254.

Americana Vol. 25, p.236

The family name of Radford is derived from the old Redford village in Nottinghamshire, or from East Redford, spelled Redeford.

Curiously enough, this name seems to have been confused with the name Redeford and Radford until today the name Radford is the usual spelling. The original bearer of the name, however, wrote himself Redford, and in an ancient record dating back to 1273, we find the name of one William de Redeford. This mention is made in the Hundred Rolls of Nottinghamshire, England.

Early Virginia Immigrants by Greer shows several Radfords.

William 1636 in Henrico County

Richard 1637 Henrico County

Thomas 1647 Lower Norfolk County

John 1652

There is a town of Radford in Montgomery County, Virginia.

Some random notes on Radfords:

Will of Christopher Robinson 1693 gives Richard Radford as overseer

Radford

1 young horse now running at the grange commonly called black Wild Catt Land patent July 10, 1637 Richard Radford. . . . Nov. 16, 1781 Richard Radford signed request that the troops be not innoculated... Richard and William Radford appear on the Shelby County, Kentucky tax list 1800.

The first proven Radford ancestor in our line is Bruen (Bruin)¹, will proved 1687/8. Was in Old Rappahannock, Va. from 1683 to 1688. Said to have been from St. Mary's County, Maryland but was probably descended from an early Virginia immigrant. Would like to know his parentage.

George² (Bruen¹) Radford, b. prob. 1665-9, d. spring 1746. He was of age in 1690 as he was plaintiff in a suit. Was of Old Rappahannock Co., Va. In Essex Co. 1694, m. Ann who d. by Nov. 1746. She was executor of George's estate.

John³ (George²Bruen¹) Radford, b. ca 1700, d. 1773. In Goochland Co., Va. by 1725 where he patented 400 acres. In 1740, 175 acres, in 1740 300 acres, in 1751, 100 acres. Richard⁴ (John³George²Bruen¹) Radford, b. ca 1737, from Powhatan Co., Va. to Shelby Co., Kentucky by 1783 where he was living with 10 whites and 6 blacks in his family. Was executor of his father's (John's) will. Richard Radford's estate was settled in Shelbyville, Kentucky in 1806. No. 5, bundle 95.

Richard⁵ (Richard⁴John³George²Bruen¹) Radford, m. Cumberland Co., Va. Ann _____. Living in Shelby Co., Ky. before 1801.

Mary (Polly)⁶ (Richard⁵Richard⁴John³George²Bruen¹) Radford, d. Apr. 25, 1840, m. ^{25 Dec 1784} ~~30 Dec 1800~~, Shelby Co., Ky. Thomas FitzSimmons, b. Mar. 1761 Cumberland Co., later Powhatan Co., Va., d. 12 Mar. 1840, Hendricks Co., Indiana. Revolutionary Soldier. (See charts)

(In Forks of Elkhorn Church by Darnell, we find where a Richard Radford m. Letha Gale, daughter of Robt. E. Gale, b. Carolina Co., Va. 1769, m. Elizabeth Wood) This Richard could not have been either of ours as Richard (5) had wife Ann and Richard (4) would have been too old. Perhaps someone can identify him.)

*Maxey family above is credited with coming with the Huguenot mass migration about 1700. A family of the name was earlier in Maryland. The ones in Virginia settled at Manakintown near where the Radfords lived.

WILL OF RICHARD RADFORD

In the name of God Amen. I, Richard Radford, of Shelby County and State of Kentucky, being aged infirm and weak in body but of sound mind and reflecting memory and knowing that I am drawing near the close of life and that I must soon go the way of all flesh I do make this my last will and Testament in form following (to wit) I resign my soul into the hands of my faithful Creator through the mediation of my Savior Jesus Christ. I wish my body to be buried in a plain decent manner with respect to the portion of earthly goods which kind Providence has bestowed on me and all that it be dispersed in the following manner.

I wish all my just debts to be paid and the remainder of my personal Estate (except the small sum hereinafter specially bequeathed) I give to my beloved wife Ann Radford to dispose of at her pleasure. I have given to my daughter Martha Duncan one negro girl named Phillis which I hereby confirm together with her past and future Increase and further give my said daughter one dollar of my personal Estate. I have given to my son George Radford one negro girl named Lucy which I do hereby confirm together with past and future Increase and I further give him one dollar. I have given to my daughter Mary Elizabeth Simmons one negro boy named Silas and I further give her one dollar. I have given my son John Radford one negro man named Abram and give him one dollar. I give and bequeath to my daughter Catharine Lile one negro girl named Fanny with future increase and I also give her one dollar. I have given to my son William Radford one negro man named Simon. I have given to my daughter Rebecca Percy one negro girl named Clark with all her future increases also I give her one dollar of my personal estate. I have given to my daughter Ann Blaydes one negro girl named China with her future increase and one dollar. To my granddaughter Emeline Radford, daughter of Robert Radford deceased, one negro boy named Morton but it is my wish that my daughter-in-law, Betsey Radford shall have the use and possession of said boy during her widowhood and at her death or marriage the sole right to be vested in Emeline.

I bequeath the plantation I now occupy to my beloved wife during her life and the woodland adjoining to same on the South side and at her death to be equally divided between my son William Radford and my Grandson Richard Radford son of Robert Radford, deceased that is to say William on the South and Richard on the North side. It is my wish that Betsey Radford widow of Robert Radford shall remain in full possession of the house and the part of my land that her husband was in possession before his death during her widowhood but enjoin it on my Executors to prevent her committing any waste there to the injury of my grandson. I give to my beloved wife, Amy and Lucy two negro women with their future increases to dispose of as she may think proper. I wish my executor to dispense with the usual appraisals. I do hereby constitute and appoint my esteemed friends Joseph Conduant and Noble H. an Executors to this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills and making void all others heretofore made.

SMITH (SMYTH)

1. Capt. Roger Smyth, born about 1587, died after 1629, married Jane, daughter of William and Jane Pierce. Roger was the son of John Smyth, of Nibley, Gloucestershire. John Smyth was the chief promoter of Berkley Hundred, investing large sums of money in the Berkley-Smyth-Tracy Thorpe plantation, and it was mainly due to his influence that altruistic and philanthropic influences were written into the charter. John Smyth was 53 in 1620, and did not come to Virginia, but his sons, Roger and Richard, did come.

Roger Smyth was a soldier under Sir Francis Vere in the Netherlands, a captain. His first voyage to Virginia was in 1616. In November 1619 he went to England and made complaint of Sir George Yeardley's treatment of him. At a meeting of the company December 13, 1620, it was determined Roger Smyth was to have 30 pounds, to be furnished with all he required, to be given command of "50 persons now transported to Virginia." Roger sailed for the colony February 1621, and July 24th of that year he was made a member of the council.

March 22, 1623, Indians killed five men near his plantation in Charles City County and Roger then built a block house. He had a grant of 96 acres in James City December 12, 1625, and a plantation of 100 acres at Archer's Hope. The muster of his household showed he and his wife were caring for three little girls, Elizabeth Solter, 7 years old, who came from England in the Seaflower, Elizabeth Rolfe, 4 years old, born in Virginia (Jane's daughter and stepchild to Roger), and Sarah Macock, 2, born in Virginia. Four men servants were listed and nine men and one servant "over the water." This referred to the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

Roger and Jane were shown living in James City in 1625. The last mention of Roger was November 30, 1629, when he was still a member of the Council. He probably died soon after that date, for his name disappears from the records. It is likely he and Jane had other children, but the only child who survived, and is of record, was a son John, who follows.

2. John Smyth--or more often Smith--born about 1625, died 1674, married Hannah, daughter of William Daft, of Grand Exon, Rutlandshire, England. John owned land in both Warwick and Charles City Counties. He was Burgess from Warwick, speaker of the House of Burgesses 1657 and 1658.

In 1665 he was commissioned Major of Virginia Troops, and he became lieutenant-colonel. His wife Hannah had land in Charles City County and was living in 1680.

3. Obadiah Smith, died 1746, married Mary, daughter of William and Jane (Flower) Cooke.

Obadiah lived in Henrico County, and he owned 200 acres in Charles City County, land probably inherited from his father. As a planter in Henrico County, he owned 100 acres. He had a son Obadiah, who became a very prominent man in the colony.

Note: This is an extension of the Smith chart which appeared in the July 1960 Genealogist. Also on the same chart we add David Ellis, immigrant, father of John Ellis. Evidently father and son came together from Wales.

PIERCE

Descent of Jane Pierce, wife of Roger Smyth

1. Capt. William Pierce was born about 1584, died 1651, married Jane. William came to Virginia in 1609 with Sir Thomas Gates in the Sea Venture and his wife, listed as Mistress Jane Pierce, came in 1610 in the Blessing. Their servants as given by Hotten were Thomas Smith, aged 17, Henry Bradford 35, Esther Ederife and "Angela a Negro woman." (Incidentally, in the romance "To Have and to Hold," Captain Percy recounted he had bought a black woman, Angela, the only one of her kind in Virginia, from Captain Pierce. This is mentioned as an interesting sidelight on a favorite novel.) The rest of William Pierce's servants, arms, munitions, in Hotten's muster of Capt. William Pierce at his plantation at Mulberry Island, included 30 men and 1 woman.

William's first land was in Jamestown, 2100 acres, on the James River near Buckner's Neck, where the church was built. In 1619 he had 650 acres additional by patent, and as late as 1643 he got 1450 acres, due him for the adventure of 20 persons. (Transportation for new settlers to America.)

In May 1623 Governor Wyatt appointed William Pierce Captain of the Guard and Commander of James City.. That same year he led a successful expedition against the Chickahominy Indians. In 1623 George Sandys, Treasurer of the Colony, wrote to England: William Pierce is inferior to none in experience, capacity and ability, and he recommended him for appointment to the Council.

William was in England in 1629 and there wrote "A Relation of the Present State of the Colony by Capt. Wm. Pierce, an Ancient Planter of twenty years standing there." This pamphlet gave much valuable information concerning Virginia. William was a member of the Convention in 1625 and a member of the Council from 1631 to 1648.

His house, a wooden building in Jamestown, was called "the fairest in all Virginia." He had a fine garden, in which he raised an abundance of figs and vegetables. George Sandys had a room in William's house, and there he wrote poetry and raised silkworms.

In 1632 William stood sixth in rank in the Council, and in 1646 he was second. He opposed Governor Harvey's bad government, and he was one of the councillors who in 1635 arrested and deposed Harvey, himself leading a troop of musketeers to beset the Governor's house. William Pierce was included in the royal commission of governors in 1640. He was early in Virginia, and his record there was of the highest caliber.

2. Jane Pierce, born ___ died ___ married (1) about 1619 John Rolfe, (2) about 1624 Capt. Roger Smyth.

THE POOR FAMILY

This family has been difficult to trace. There seem to be very few available records. We find the name spelled Poore, and Pore, as well as Poor. The Douglas Register states that Thomas Poore died in Goochland Co., Virginia on Feb. 1, 1788. Another note: Abraham Poore, probably a brother of Thomas, married Judith Gardener (1746) in Goochland Co., Va. and had daughter, Mildred.

FITZSIMMONS, ELLIS, LEE, PERKINS, RADFORD,
REDDING AND ALLIED LINES

Compiled by
Bernice FitzSimmons Hathaway

The Lee Line

This line has been very difficult to trace. It is hoped that someone can furnish the answer to the ancestry of John Lee and wife Lucy (Braxton?). Since he died 1770 there can be only two or three generations back to the immigrant.

A correspondent who has been most helpful, Mrs. Nelda Paul of 204 S. Summit St., Indianapolis 1, Indiana, feels that John may be descended from Philip Lee of Maryland, since there is a connection there with some of the Ellis lines, and there are many Lee and Braxton marriages in Maryland. So far I've been unable to find the record of John Lee's marriage to Lucy.

Wills of John Lee, Sr. and John Lee, Jr. follow. While we do not descend from John Jr., his will is of interest, in that the family names come down, and the name Philip appears.

Again in the Spotsylvania Records we find a John Lee mentioned Dec. 7, 1732 and also July 3, 1733. Did this John go to Goochland Co. or is he the father of John of Goochland?

WILL OF JOHN LEE SENIOR - 1770

In the name of God Amen -- I John Lee of the County of Goochland being in a very low state of health, but in perfect memory do make this my last Will & Testament in manner and form following that is to say, first and principally I recommend my Soul into the hands of the Almighty God who gave it me, hoping forgiveness of my many fold sins, through the merits and meditations of my Blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ amen, and for what Worldly goods it has pleased God to bless me with I give and dispose of as followeth.

Item: I lend to my wife Lucy Lee during her life all my Estate and after her death I give to my son John Lee the land whereon I now live, to him and his heirs forever, and I give to my son Benjamin Lee the land whereon he now lives which containing one hundred fifty acres to him and his heirs forever, my will and desire is that the remainder part of my estate after my said wives decease shall be equally divided between my four children (viz.) John Lee, Benjamin Lee, Stephen Lee, Deborah Hodges to them and their heirs forever.

Lastly, I appoint my three sons, John Lee, Benjamin Lee, Stephen Lee, Executors of this my last Will and Testament revoking all

The name Stephen Lee appears in many references and one of the problems has been the confusion of the two Stephan Lees of Kentucky. However, our Stephen appears in Sumners Annals of Southwest Virginia. Stephen Lee purchased 140 acres on Fox Creek, Montgomery Co., March 25, 1763.

Stephen Lee appointed a surveyor in Botetourt Co. Va. Dec. 12, 1786 Order Book No. 1, County Court of Franklin, Rockeyment, Va. Stephen Lee served on the jury Mar. 4, 1789.

Stephen Lee is allowed 200 lbs. beef 6 diets and $\frac{1}{4}$ bushel corn furnished commander of the Provision Law for Henry Co. Va. (Va. Hist. Mag. Vol. 11 p. 90).

Stephen Lee 3 lbs. 10.9 for 97 lbs. do. to do.

In the settlement of Braxton Lee's estate there is mentioned "Note due from the estate of Stephen Lee of Kentucky--very doubtful of collection."

Stephen Lee said to have died by 1795 in Kentucky. I have been unable to locate his will.

1. John Lee, funeral 3 Oct. 1770, Goochland Co. Va. m. Lucy (Braxton?), she d. 24 July 1771, Funeral sermon Luke 10 41-42.
2. Stephen (John 1) said to have been b. 1720, Prince William Co., m. 3 Nov. 1763, Goochland Co. Va., Ann Poor, dau. of Thomas Poor and wife Elizabeth (Moseley or Braxton?). See Poor line.
3. Mildred Lee (Stephen 2, John 1) m. Franklin Co. Va. Jan. 3, 1791 by Randolph Hall minister, John Ellis. (See Ellis line). Stephen Lee and Ann Poor had at least three other children, Louis Henry, d. Davidson Co., Tenn.; Braxton, b. 3 Aug. 1766, d. Tenn. 1841 (See record from Tenn.) and Jubal, in Shelby Co. Ky. 1819, signs paper with John Ellis. Possibly Stephen and Ann also had a son John.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

DATE: 10/1/54

TO: THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

FROM: THE MANAGER

SUBJECT: PROPOSED CHANGES IN THE BY-LAWS

The following proposed changes in the By-Laws of the Corporation have been prepared for the Board of Directors' consideration. These changes are suggested in order to bring the By-Laws into conformity with the current requirements of the State of California and to clarify certain provisions which have become obsolete. The changes are as follows:

1. To amend Article II, Section 1, to read: "The Corporation shall have the right to acquire, hold, and dispose of real and personal property, including the right to acquire, hold, and dispose of shares of stock in other corporations."

2. To amend Article III, Section 1, to read: "The Board of Directors shall have the authority to make, alter, or repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation, subject to the approval of the stockholders at a regular meeting."

3. To amend Article IV, Section 1, to read: "The stockholders shall elect a Board of Directors, who shall have the authority to manage the business and affairs of the Corporation, subject to the control of the stockholders at their annual meeting."

Very truly yours,

FITZSIMMONS, ELLIS, LEE, PERKINS, RADFORD,
REDDING AND ALLIED LINES

Compiled by

In the Radford material already published (See Vol. 21, p.89) there is conflicting material. Kentucky Marriages show a Mary Radford m. Thomas FitzSimmons Oct. 30, 1800. Hinshaw's Virginia Records, p.915, gives: Thomas FitzSimmons m. 25 Dec. 1784 Mary (Polly) Radford. They were m. by Wm. Johnson in Bedford Co., Va.

Also added information has been found for the charts (See Vol. 21, p.66) The wife of Reuben Redding was Elizabeth ____ ? William Redding m. Sarah Curd, but it may have been another William, and not William, the father of Reuben.

ELLIS LINE

There are a number of coats of arms for the Ellis family, but since all records say that the first of our line came from North Wales, I submit this one to be correct.

ARMS: Sable a chevron between three fleur de lis argent, for the Ellis of Ystymillyn Co. Carnarvon, Wales.

--Burke's General Armory

David Ellis appears to have been the first of the name to emigrate to the colony, coming in the second supply from England. He is recorded among the early emigrants as living in the mines near Jamestown. He was one of the men sent by Captain Smith to build a home for King Powhatan on the York River. A recent sketch of the family in the Richmond Times-Dispatch states that John Ellis of Tuckahoe was the son of David. Col. Ellis, however, does not make this claim, but begins his register with John Ellis, one of the grantees of the second charter of the Virginia Company, and himself according to Col. Ellis, an emigrant. (p.35. Book pub. Richmond, Va. Aug. 14, 1849)

1. John Ellis, of Tuckahoe, in the county of Henrico, and State of Virginia. The tradition in the family is that he was of Welsh descent. By a deposition, of record in the Clerk's office of Henrico County Court, sworn to in Court Feb. 1, 1691, it appears that he was born about the year 1661. His appearance is noted as a witness in the Court October 1, 1683. An indenture, made the 31st day of the eleventh month "commonly called January" 1697-98, between John Ellis, of the county of Henrico, Planter, and John Pleasantes, senior, of the same county, conveying 240 acres of land situated in the said county, is acknowledged in open Court by John Ellis Feb. 1, 1697. In an account of goods sold, belonging unto Mr. Tertulian Schut, deceased, by William Cocke, Coroner, also of record in the said office, there is the entry "14th August, 1701 To 1 bay mare, at 4 pounds. o. o. sold John Ellis." At a Court held at Varina, for the county of Henrico, the first Monday in December, being the fifth day of the month, Annoque Domini, 1715, John Ellis appeared personally and acknowledged one deed dated the 3rd day of December, 1715, from himself to Robert Napier, to be his act and deed, and the same was thereupon admitted to be his act and deed, and the same was thereupon admitted to record. Then Susanna, the wife of the said John Ellis, being first privately examined, relinquished her right of dower in the land by the said deed conveyed, which relinquishment was also admitted to record. A patent from George the 1st, witnessed by His Majesty's trusty and well beloved Alexander Spotswood, Lieut. Gov. etc., sealed with the seal of the colony at Williamsburg, December 16, 1714, grants unto John Ellis one certain tract or parcel of land containing five hundred acres, lying and being in the county of Henrico and on the eastern branch of Tuckahoe, for and in consideration of the sum of fifty shillings of good and lawful money paid to the Receiver General of his Majesty's Revenues in His Majesty's Colony and Dominion of Virginia. Also, one other patent, witnessed by Henry Drysdale, Governor, bearing date the 24th of March, 1725, grants unto John Ellis of Henrico County, for the consideration of 40 shillings, 400 acres of land lying and being in the same county. Both of which said patents are of record in the Virginia Land Office.

John Ellis of Tuckahoe, Henrico Co., Va. (Wales to Henrico Co. ca 1683) in a deposition in 1691 said he was 30 years old. Had wife Susanna Ware. He was living 1725. Will probated 1st Monday in December, 1728.

John Ellis (3) above m. Mildred Lee (Franklin Co. Va.) They went to Shelby County Kentucky where he died ca Dec. 1818. His name appears on the 1st tax list Shelby Co. 1792-1795. They were the parents of Lucy Ellis m. Patrick FitzSimmons. Joseph m. Mary Polly

Mildred Lee m. 2nd Shadrach Pearson (Rev. Soldier) Do not think she had any children by the second marriage.

In History of Shelby Co., Ky. the author says that the name Bagdad came from the afflicted son of a miller who, when someone came with corn to be ground, could only say "Bagdad."

When visiting with Marvin and Sylvia Ellis at Bagdad, Kentucky,
March 1961, we borrowed a tractor and went to the old Ellis home.
It is off the road some two miles, but of course when it was settled early in the 1790's roads were not laid out as now. This is hilly country with many trees, and wild grape vines several inches in diameter seem to grow on the bushes and trees. Small clearings were made for tobacco, melons, etc. The house was built probably before 1793. The place was in the Ellis family until in the 1950's when, because of its inaccessibility Marvin Ellis traded it for land closer to where he lives. The new owner tore most of the house down, but some of the logs are still in position on one end and a stone fireplace still stands. It is completely deserted and apparently the land is not used at all now for crops.

The fireplace is of a bluish limestone with lots of fossils, and the mortar is still in excellent condition in it and as chinking in the logs. The Ellis' told how the mortar was made. A layer of hardwood was placed on the ground, then a layer of the limestone rock, then wood, then rock in alternate layers until there was a large pile. Then fire was lighted and the wood and rock were kept burning for fourteen days and nights. At the end of this time the pile was reduced to ashes which were a fine lime and when mixed with water, made a fine hard mortar that is practically indestructible.

They also described the house. The first part of the old house was built out of several kinds of logs, mostly beech, some blue ash. It was two-story, ceiling was 7 ft. on the first floor, the upstairs ran up to the rafters and over to form the other room. It was 20 x 20 ft. The floors were blue ash $1\frac{1}{2}$ x 8 tongue and grooved by hand. The fireplace was 6 feet, the stair treads were blue ash. The blue ash was white wood when finished.

Marvin has many of the old family papers, bibles, pictures etc., some of which he loaned to me to copy. Among them are some of the tax receipts of Joseph Ellis, who m. Mary Polly Redding. These run from 1823 to 1834 and they seemed to increase in the same way they do now, for in those years they went from 18 $\frac{3}{4}$ cents to \$1.46 on 111 acres of land, one tythes, 3 horses, also 147 acres of land.

The estate of John Ellis may be of interest and it is followed by a letter from Minnie Long Wirt, since deceased, then copies of the Ellis Bible records.

The Administrators of the estate of John Ellis were Abraham Cook and Mildred Ellis and their settlement is filed in Will Book #7 on page #10. On January 2, 1819 the appraisement was filed and also the sale bill of the estate of John Ellis. The sale bill is recorded in Will Book #4 on page #270 and the appraisement recorded in Will Book #4 on page #297. On March 2, 1819 division of land was made between the heirs of John Ellis, deceased and Jubal Lee. This is recorded in Will Book #4 on page 310. In January 1837 a motion was made in the County Court by Meshack Pearson and Mildred, his wife. Mildred was the widow of John Ellis. This motion was for an allotment of dower to Mildred Pearson late Mildred Ellis, in the lands of John Ellis. This motion is recorded in Will Book #12 on page #151. In December, 1845 motion was made by Thomas Ellis, John Ellis, Joseph Ellis, John Knolls and Sarah, his wife, Patrick FitzSimmons and Lucy, his wife, Martha Jane Riddle, John S. Riddle, Mildred F. Riddle, Henry W. Riddle, by Jacob W. Riddle, their Guardian, to divide the slaves and lands between the heirs of John Ellis, deceased. This division is of record in Will Book #16 on page #11 and shows that 125 acres was allotted to Mildred Pearson, 17 acres to John Ellis, 18 acres to Thomas Ellis, 18 acres to Joseph Ellis, 21 acres to John Knolls and 21 acres to the Riddles.

Letter from granddaughter of Joseph FitzSimmons

Joseph FitzSimmons m. 1st Mary Ann Ellis, 1851

" " m. 2nd Nancy Layton, 1857

The granddaughter desc. of Mary Ann & Joseph

"Ma's cousin, Wm. Ellis, came to Louisburg and visited at our house and grandpa's. Then when I decided to go to Ky. to the "Home Coming" in June of 1906, Ma said she would go too. So as Wm. (a bachelor) was the only one we had met we wrote him we would come. He lived with a brother Jim (a widower) in a log house which had been in the Ellis family for over 100 yrs. I think the father's name was Reuben. Three sons, Tom (a bachelor) Jim and Wm. Jim had one boy, Marvin, who was being raised by the mother's people.

This log house was where Ma's mother was born and raised and married. Ma and Uncle Willis were born there and we saw a stout little chair which belonged to Uncle Willis. There was no photo of this Lucy, but there was one of a Grandmother Ellis. Wm. had copies made for Ma and I off of it. Across the field to the southwest from the house was the family cemetery where Ma's mother is laid. Tom lived on a farm some distance from there and a few years after we visited there they wrote Tom had died. Jim and Wm. are probably dead by now but their P.O. then was Bagdad. We visited Mr. & Mrs. Bunk Ellis, a grown son & daughter at Pleasuresville. They also lived on a farm. The son drove into Pleasuresville to work in a bank. We visited Jo Ellis. He said we should stay there all the time as he was more closely related to Ma than she was to the others as his mother and Ma's mother were twins. I think his P.O. was Flay Fork. He lived on a farm & drove each day into Frankfort where he had an official job, I think in the court house. His family was a wife Nannie, dau. Lizzie and several small children. Joe's twin sisters Mary and Mona Ellis, maiden ladies of about 35, lived with him and did the housework.

We visited Aunt Irene Ellis, a very old lady who lived in a town with a dau, but I have forgotten their names and where they lived. We took dinner with a young widow of John Ellis, in another town I don't remember. We visited in another home of a cousin called Reuben Skelton. On the 4th of July we drove to Shelbyville and called at the home of some relatives in the afternoon. Eminence is another town I remember.

I don't know much about the FitzSimmons. I never visited in Indiana. One time Ma and Pa went back there. I wrote to Indianapolis to some of the folks saying what time the folks would be at the depot if they wanted to go there to see them, as they had to wait there between trains. Some of the relatives went there to see them and some of the old darkey slaves went, thinking Grandpa would be there. They were so disappointed that they just broke down and cried like babies.

Shelby Co. Ky. is where the Ellis family lived and Christianburg was one of the towns. I remember then we were in Henry Co. Ky.*

AN OLD PIONEER HOME

I want to breathe the pure, wild air
That tastes so crisp and good,
I want to hear the hoot-owl call
From out the distant wood,
I want to hear the fox-hound's voice
On Shelby County's hills
When the moon comes up at midnight
Down at Jim and Bill's.

When the backlog fire is burning
And the phonograph's turned loose,
I want to hear Flood yarning
As he squirts tobacco juice.
Then there comes no meditation
Over life's assorted ills,
But it's a fellowship and friendship
Down at Jim and Bill's.

The cockscorn quilt is besmiling
On the bustle feather bed,
The hand that built that wondrous quilt
Has moldered with the dead,
But her memory yet is clingin',
And her mystic presence fills
All the old-time nooks and crannies
Down at Jim and Bill's.

And Bill will tell of Texas
And the cowboys on the plains,
And Jim will tell of Bailey's Mill--
That story never wanes;
There the juice of yarns a-brewing
Into greater yarns distills,
And you bid the truth a long farewell
Down at Jim and Bill's.

The quail will call at daybreak
From the sorghum and the rye,
And the dogs will all be sniffing
And a-glancing at the sky,
And we'll roam the fields of autumn
Mid the day-dreams and the thrills.
May the good Lord keep on smiling
Down at Jim and Bill's.

FITZSIMMONS, ELLIS, LEE, PERKINS, RADFORD,
REDDING AND ALLIED LINES

Compiled by
Bernice FitzSimmons Hathaway

REDDING FAMILY

Arms: Argent three bear's heads couped sable
Crest: A gillyflower stalked and leaved proper. (Redding book)

This is an elusive line and many genealogists feel that the Reddings were originally a New Jersey family and from there scattered to Virginia, Kentucky and other states. In "Early Virginia Immigrants" p.274, there is one Richard Redding, 1656, but so far the line is not connected to ours.

I shall show the direct proved line and the materials regarding the settlements of the estates and that will be followed by random notes which may be helpful to other researchers and eventually the ancestors of William may be found.

William¹ Redding lived in Winchester, Va. for a time, d. Shelby Co. Kentucky 1804.

Reuben² Redding, (William¹), d. by Oct. 1842 Shelby County, Ky.
(Would like to know who these men married.)

Mary (Polly)³ Redding (William¹ Reuben²), b. 13 Oct 1797, d. 1 June 1859, m. 22 July 1824, Joseph Ellis, b. 9 June 1799, d. 8 Oct. 1874, res. Bagdad, Kentucky. (Ellis line to appear later)

WILLIAM REDDING served in the Revolutionary War as a Private in a Virginia organization, designation not stated. His name appears in a record under the heading: "Cash paid the non-commissioned officers and privates of the Virginia Continental Line of Artillery and Infantry, with the sums annexed for February, March and April, 1783" which shows the amount paid 20 dollars.

The records also show that William Redding served in that war as a soldier of Virginia State Infantry, organization not further indicated. His name appears on a record under the heading: "A list of State soldiers and seamen who have received certificates for the balance of their full pay. Agreeable to Act of Assembly passed November Session, 1781" which shows that on April 13, 1785, the sum of L64, S 17, D 5 was drawn by one Major Magill." William Redding was given Bounty Land in Shelby County Kentucky as partial payment for his services. His will proved 1804 1st Will Book, Bundle 95 No. 3.

WASHINGTON, D. C.
JANUARY 1, 1900

SIR:
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 29th inst. in relation to the matter of the proposed purchase of the land at the mouth of the River, and in reply to inform you that the same has been referred to the proper authorities for their consideration.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours very truly,
J. D. LONG

JOHN D. LONG,
Secretary of the Navy.

Enclosed for you are two copies of the report of the Board of Commissioners on the subject of the proposed purchase of the land at the mouth of the River, and also a copy of the report of the Board of Commissioners on the subject of the proposed purchase of the land at the mouth of the River.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours very truly,
J. D. LONG

JOHN D. LONG,
Secretary of the Navy.

We have a Timothy Redding in Shelbyville in 1799. Was he father, brother or son of William above? We know that William had sons Timothy and Reuben, but was there an older Timothy?

A letter from a Mrs. Patty of Shelby County, written in 1941, says: "Very early settlers of Shelbyville built two-story log houses, hewn by hand between 1794 and 1797 on up to 1802. One of these was Timothy Redding. In 1864 Merritt Redding was proprietor of the Redding Hotel located midway between 6th and 7th streets on south side of Main St. He was fatally wounded by a band of desperadoes and died a few days later. The log houses were built of blue ash timber."

Also from Mrs. Patty, Sept. 2, 1943: Memorial of the Redding Family. In the old Presbyterian church yard now the site of the Shelbyville Public Library there, the stones almost touching the west wall of the building were: Elizabeth Redding aged 59, Timothy Redding aged 67, Zachariah Redding died Jan. 7th 1850 aged 1 year, 2 mos. and 8 days. Sarah Ann Redding wife of Robert H. Redding died Jan. 25, 1853 aged 29 years, 25 days. There were others of this family buried there whose graves and stones have passed into oblivion.

"Weep not, departing spirits cry,
In accents soft and low.
After more years may roll their round,
Then you our blessed dead shall know.
We part, but Oh, we soon shall meet,
Around our Father's Throne.
We'll meet as we have never met,
Where parting is no more."

Timothy Redding was a shoe merchant for many years." Timothy Redding built house in Shelbyville between 1794-1796.

Feb. 22, 1960 Leonard Redding wrote from Shelbyville: "Timothy Redding was my great grandfather and his wife was Elizabeth and came from Winchester, Virginia to Shelbyville, Kentucky. My grandfather was Richard Redding and his wife was a Shoemate. My father's name was Wilbur Clayton Redding."

Redding notes: I include these hoping they may be of value to someone.

In Forks of Elkhorn Church by Darnell, we find "Redding, Rev. Joseph 1750-1815 Fauquier Co. Va., m. Ann Weakley and came to Kentucky. In Woodford 1790--pastor of Great Crossings Church in Scott from 1793 to 1810. Joseph and Anne were parents of Sarah Suggett, b. 1778 and perhaps other children. One Joseph m. Nancy Banks."

In Virginia Hist. Reg. Sussex Co. Wills, Elizabeth Redding 1814 marriage bonds Norfolk Co. David Service and Miss Polly Redding Feb. 25, 1809.

On Petition for Division of Land

By virtue of an order of the Shelby County Court made at their Nov. Term 1861. We the undersigned Commissioners after being first duly sworn for the purpose proceeded to lay off to James Clayton the interest that Elizabeth Redding owned in the lands of her father Ruben Redding, deceased in said County and ask leave to report as follows, to-wit: By a former Survey and division under an order of the Shelby Circuit Court it was known that there still remained to five of the heirs of said Ruben Redding dec'd. of whom said Elizabeth Redding is one Seventy Six acres and 20 poles of land which is represented on the annexed lot by the figures 12, 7, 8, 9, 10, 2, 14 and after viewing the premises we thought proper to lay off to said Clayton Sixteen acres of said 7 acres and 20 poles, which is represented by the figures 12, 11, 13, 14. In which sixteen acres however there is a Graveyard containing half an acre to be laid off in convenient form so as to suit those interested therein and at the same time not to injure the lands of Clayton more than is actually necessary...

The ten acres of land represented by the figures 1, 10 was assigned to Clayton in a former division and the other pieces represented by the figures 14, 3, 4, 5 and 12 containing 66 acres and 20 poles was also assigned to Clayton in a former division and the piece of land represented by the figures 10, 2, 13, 11, 7, 8, 9 containing Sixty acres and 20 poles remains for four of Ruben Redding heirs still and all of which is respectfully reported.

REDDING AND ALLIED LINES

Compiled by
Bernice FitzSimmons Hathaway

FITZSIMMONS

FitzSimmons is of Norman origin. Names using Fitz are always Norman, as in France Fitz means "son of". The Fitz-Simmonses undoubtedly came to England during the time of William the Conqueror. The name has been prominent around London for centuries and appears in Ireland as early as 1177.

"FITZSIMONS. This name might have been treated as Hiberno-Norman, but it has been placed here rather than in Part II because it differs from the names included there, in that category (like Fitzgerald and Burke) in two main respects: first, it is by no means peculiar to Ireland being, indeed, much more usual in England, and secondly there are no basic arms common to all armigerous Irish Fitzsimons families. Nevertheless the first records of the name in Ireland are of a period very shortly after the Anglo-Norman invasion. Among the Norman families brought to Co. Down by John de Courcy in 1177 were some called Fitzsimon, while others of the name followed the Prendergasts to Mayo early in the next century and were still strong there in 1585, when a Fitzsimon possessed Castlereagh and other castles.

"People are particular nowadays about the way their names are spelt, but even as late as the eighteenth century we find the same families using FitzSimon and FitzSymon (with or without a final S), as well as FitzSymonds and even FitzSimmons, while occasionally the Fitz is dropped and Symons--the use or disuse of the capital S after Fitz was quite arbitrary--(or variants thereof) is used. The majority of births recorded by Matheson are entered as Fitzsimons.

"The most important line of FitzSimons is that which came to Ireland from Simonshide, in Herefordshire, and settled in the Pale in 1323, since when they have been continuously leading gentry in Counties Dublin and Westmeath. There are no less than seven Dublin men in the Funeral Entries of Ulster King of Arms between 1568 and 1610, four being civic dignitaries (Mayor, Recorder etc.). By 1659 they had become not only influential in Co. Westmeath but numerous, too, for in the census of that date FitzSimons appears as a principal Irish name in the barony of Demifore. Some of these adopted the Gaelic patronymic Mac an Rídire, anglicized MacRuddery, which, in turn, was sometimes changed by translation to MacKnight. The Four Masters record the death in 1505 of Edmund Dorcha Fitzsimon "of the descendants of the Knight", who was prior of Fore. There was a connexion between the Mayo Fitzsimonses and those of Dublin, for in the "Composition Book of Connacht" (1585) Nicholas FitzSymons is described as "gent. of Downmackniny" (barony of Glanmorris) and also alderman of Dublin. They are now represented by the family of O'Connell-FitzSimon of Glencullen, Co. Dublin.

"Especially noteworthy among the distinguished bearers of the name in Ireland are Walter FitzSimons (d.1511), Archbishop of Dublin from 1484, who also ably performed the duties of Lord Deputy and of Lord Chancellor for several years; and Father Henry Fitzsimon, S.J. (1566-1643), whose remarkable career is described in Rev. E. Hogan's Distinguished Irishmen of the Sixteenth Century. In America, Irish-born Thomas FitzSimmons (1741-1811) was one of the leading men in the War of Independence."

--ANGLO-IRISH SURNAMES, pp. 291-292.

In O'Hart's "Irish Pedigrees", Principal Families of Irish and English Extraction, p. 19, FitzSimmons in King's Co.

There seem to be three coats of arms for the FitzSimmonses, and similarity exists between them. Since, to date, we have no proof as to their home before coming to this country, we cannot say which definitely belongs to us. The name Patrick appearing at Westmeath is suggestive.

As mentioned before, we find various spellings of the name FitzSimmons--FitzSymon, Fitzsimon, Fitchsimmons and even Fitz-Sumin. My own great Grandfather, Joseph FitzSimmons, used Joseph F. Simmons most of his life and always said, "The F is keeping up the Fitz part." All legal documents, though, were signed Fitzsimmons and while my Grandfather, Willis, used Simmons, he also used the proper signature and full name for his legal work. I am proud to say that my father, Alvah, brother Warren and nephew James always use the full name, FitzSimmons, with the S capitalized.

Some researchers have attempted to find a relationship to the Thomas Fitzsimmons of Pennsylvania who was one of the signers of the Constitution, but I have failed to find a link. This Thomas came from Ireland and left no descendants.

I have been unable to determine when our FitzSimmons first came to Virginia. FitzSimmons is a name rarely found in most genealogical files, which is one of the reasons I am including some scattered notes, hoping they may be beneficial to others.

The first of our definite proven line is Patrick FitzSimmons appearing in the following document, 1771, and his inventory, 1785.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The history of the United States of America is a story of growth and change. It begins with the first settlers, who came to the continent in search of a new life. They found a land of vast resources and a people who were different from them. Over the years, the United States has grown from a small colony to a great nation. It has fought wars, both with and without, and has always emerged stronger. The story of the United States is a story of the human spirit, of the desire for freedom and the pursuit of happiness. It is a story that has inspired people all over the world.

The United States has a rich and diverse culture. It is a land of many peoples, each with their own traditions and customs. This diversity has made the United States a stronger and more resilient nation. The American dream is a dream of opportunity, of a place where anyone can achieve their dreams. It is a dream that has made the United States a land of hope and possibility.

The United States has a long and proud history. It is a history of achievement and of sacrifice. It is a history that has shaped the world and that will continue to shape the future. The United States is a nation of many faces, but it is a nation with a single heart. It is a nation that believes in the power of the people and in the power of the American dream.

In the first census of Virginia, 1790, Powhatan Co., page 59, we find Patrick's son, Patrick (2) FitzSimmons, head of a family consisting of 11 whites. This Patrick (2) FitzSimmons gave wood to the Revolutionary soldiers as he apparently was too old or had too many dependants to enlist. His name again appears on the following document. Because of this donation he is considered a Revolutionary Patriot. Names of the wives of Patrick (1) and Patrick (2) unknown.

Since Thomas lived long enough to receive a pension for his Revolutionary Services I have been able to trace him in much greater detail than is usual with Revolutionary Soldiers. The map on the following page shows in detail his three enlistments. Records from Washington give all this in detail and when in Frankfort, I copied the original claim which he made in 1818 and again in 1820. In this he made statements as to his military career, and said that at that time (1820) he had only his wife and one Negro boy named Silas living with him. Also I have records from the Veterans Administration and the General Accounting Office in Washington.

Thomas was living near Richmond in Powhatan Co. Va. when he first enlisted. He enlisted three times. First at 15 for 18 months. Served as Pvt. in Capt. William Cunningham's Co. and Col. Richard Parker's Va. Rgt. Was in the battle of White Plains, New Jersey, Oct. 28, 1776. He was on the Delaware crossing and in battle of Trenton, Stony Brook and Millstone Creek Jan. 2, 1777. Battle at Middlebrook, New Jersey May 28, 1777. Was with Washington through most of his service and Washington himself lead the soldiers in the White Plains and Middlebrook battles. After serving out his first enlistment he returned to Virginia.

He enlisted again in the fall of 1777 for a period of 3 years. Served as Pvt. in Capt. Wm. Cunningham's Co., Colonels Richard Parker's and _____ Willis' Va. Rgt. Marched from Va. to Valley Forge in Pennsylvania; was there during the terrible winter, then marched further north where he served out the term for which he enlisted. Was probably present at Burgoyne's surrender. Was in the battle of Monmouth, N.J. June 28, 1778, where he was wounded in his right heel. Was discharged in the fall of 1780 at West Point, then returned to Va.

He enlisted again Feb. 1781 for the term of the war. Was a Pvt., Capt. Holman Minnis' Co., Col. Tucker's Va. Regt. Was marched to Charleston, So. Carolina; was sick when a battle was fought there by Gen. Gates. Col. Wm. Parker was killed in Charleston and was succeeded by _____ Willis. He was in the battle of Petersburg, also at the battle of Guilford Court House, No. Carolina, Mar. 15, 1781, where many were killed and wounded. (Earl of Cornwallis attacked Nathaniel Greene in front of the Court House). Greene was losing so many men that he sent out the 1st Va. Regt. (of which Thomas was one) to cover him and retreated. Cornwallis lost 500; Greene less than half that many.

From Guilford Court House Thomas was marched back to Yorktown, Va. Was in the Siege of Yorktown, or Little York as it is sometimes called, where he assisted in taking Cornwallis. He was a witness to the surrender and soon after was discharged and returned home.

Since Patrick, son of Thomas and Polly, was born in Va. 10 Mar. 1792, they probably went to Kentucky soon after that and settled in Shelby County, near Bagdad. The Ellises were there by 1793 and the Radfords were on the first tax list of that county.

As late as 1875 there is a record of a survey of land which mentions boundary lines of "FitzSimmons Branch" and Reuben Ellis' property.

Thomas and Polly lived in Kentucky until the fall of 1836, when they moved to Hendricks Co., Indiana to be near their children. At one time Thomas was given 200 acres of Bounty Land. I do not know the location (probably Virginia). Beginning Aug. 3, 1829, he received $80.00 per annum.

When Thomas died on 12 March 1840, mention is made of the widow, and that Patrick, John and Richard FitzSimmons, Nancy Pearson and Jude Knowles were the only children.

I visited the Regan Cemetery at New Winchester, Indiana in Feb. 1961 and hope some day to get the grave properly marked. While there I went to the court house at Danville and found the will of Thomas, which follows:

WILL OF THOMAS FITZSIMMONS

I, Thomas Fitzsimmons of the County of Hendricks and State of Indiana, being very sick but of sane mind do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking and makin void all former wills by me at any time heretofore made, first I direct that my body be decently intered and that my funeral be conducted in a manner corresponding with my estate as it has pleased God to intrust me with. I dispose of the same in the following manner to-wit, I direct first that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as posible out of the first moneys that shall come to the hand of my Executor from any portion of my Estate. I also direct that a fair valuation or appraisement be made by three Indisigns neighbors of all my said Estate and after being signed with their names that a copy of the same be given by them to my Executor. I give and bequeath to my grand son John Fitzsimmons my Ron Horse. I give to my loving wife Mary Fitzsimmons all my personal property including all my household furniture to be taken and sold by my said Executor or dispos of the same in any manner that he may think best so as to procure a support for my said wife and at her deth if there shold be anything left to be equally divided among my said children share and share alike and I hereby make and ordain my worth son in law William Pearson Executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whareof I Thomas Fitzsimmons testator have hereunto set my hand and seal this tenth day of February A.D. 1840.

RESEARCH REPORT

1. INTRODUCTION
The purpose of this report is to describe the results of a series of experiments conducted in the Department of Chemistry, University of Chicago, during the period from January 1, 1968, to December 31, 1968. The experiments were designed to investigate the kinetics of the reaction between hydrogen peroxide and various metal ions in aqueous solution. The results of these experiments are presented in the following sections.

2. EXPERIMENTAL
2.1. Materials
The reagents used in these experiments were of the highest quality available. Hydrogen peroxide was prepared by the decomposition of barium peroxide in dilute sulfuric acid. The metal ions were prepared from their respective salts. The solvents used were distilled water and absolute ethanol.

2.2. Apparatus
The experiments were carried out in a series of glass vessels equipped with magnetic stirrers. The temperature of the reaction mixtures was controlled by a water bath. The reaction progress was monitored by the method of iodometric titration.

2.3. Procedure
A known volume of a solution of hydrogen peroxide was added to a known volume of a solution of a metal ion. The reaction mixture was stirred for a known period of time. The reaction was then stopped by the addition of a known volume of a solution of a reducing agent. The resulting solution was then titrated with a known volume of a solution of a standard oxidizing agent. The results of the titration were used to calculate the rate of the reaction.

3. RESULTS AND DISCUSSION
The results of the experiments are presented in the following tables. The rate of the reaction was found to be dependent on the concentration of the metal ion and the concentration of the hydrogen peroxide. The rate of the reaction was also found to be dependent on the temperature of the reaction mixture.

4. CONCLUSIONS
The results of these experiments indicate that the reaction between hydrogen peroxide and metal ions in aqueous solution is a complex process. The rate of the reaction is dependent on the concentration of the metal ion, the concentration of the hydrogen peroxide, and the temperature of the reaction mixture. The results of these experiments are consistent with the proposed mechanism for the reaction.

One of the descendants of Thomas FitzSimmons was called the "Giant of Kentucky." My father has said that his grandfather used to tell of him and that he could lift a hoghead of tobacco, a job which usually took three men. He believes that his name was Bob or Henry, but not positive.

Another story and again no positive name, but after leaving Kentucky, some of the FitzSimmons settled around Terre Haute, Indiana (see Patrick and Lucy.) Evidently in pioneer times salt was one of the most important staples. One of the boys decided to speculate and bought up all the salt in Terre Haute and sold it at fantastic prices!

Information regarding this cemetery from the Indiana State Library, Indianapolis. Do not know how soon after their marriage that they left Kentucky and went to Indiana, but it was not until after 1830. Patrick was a huge man, weighing almost 300 pounds.

A word of reminiscence about my Aunt Belle. One of the highlights of my young life was the trip from New Lancaster to Louisburg, some 15 miles, but an adventure with a horse and buggy, taking most of the day and visiting with relatives and friends, for on both sides I had them. My parents were born there. Aunt Belle always had flowering house plants, a beautiful doll "to look at but not touch" and a large portrait of great great grandfather Patrick, to say nothing of delicious food and many relatives dropping in.

My lovely Aunt Kate, whom I remember as a small child and later as I saw her when we visited at her home in 1941, was a great lady and a real pioneer. Soon after her marriage, she and her husband settled on a ranch near Ashland, Kansas. Western Kansas had very few inhabitants at that time. As late as 1907, when we went by train to visit them, there were large herds of buffalo roaming the western plains. They had one of the largest cattle ranches in Kansas and Aunt Kate told many stories of the struggles to keep the cattle alive, particularly the calves when the blizzards swept across that barren country. Lot Ravenscraft was in the Kansas legislature for some years. They had three daughters:

a. Inkie Ravenscraft, b. 17 March 1885, m. 6 Sept. 1905, George Taylor, b. 4 Apr. 1884. They lived on a ranch north of Ashland, Kansas. Not sure of the date of his death. Have had the pleasure of visiting with Inkie several times in the last few years, as she now lives in Ashland in the Ravenscraft home. Inkie and George had one son:

A few details about my great grandfather, Joseph Fitzsimmons. I remember him very well as he and Nancy lived about two miles west of Louisburg and we used to visit there. He was tall and had a dark beard scarcely grey as I recall. In my possession is the ox-yoke which he used when he came to Kansas. He made the trip from Kentucky to Kansas twice, using this yoke each time. He settled on the farm west of Louisburg, built his house and so far as I've been able to learn, raised the first tobacco that was ever grown in Kansas.

The story has come down that one time when Joseph went back to Indianapolis, some of the Negroes heard that he was coming. They made the trip from Kentucky to see him and when he wasn't on the train as expected, they broke down and cried like babies. Apparently they loved him very much.

During the Civil War, many men hired substitutes for active duty. Joseph did this and I presume it was because soldier pay was low and he had many dependants.

Step-great grandmother Nancy is very vivid in my mind, as long after Joseph died, she used to come to visit us. In the evenings when it was warm she would sit on the porch and sometimes smoke a little clay pipe. She was with us when we drove to LaCyna, Kansas in our first car to see the first airplane brought into that county. It was at a fair and everyone came for miles to see it and Nancy was happy as a child to see the change from ox-cart to plane. She was a fine cook and I still have her recipe for apple butter.

WILLIS FITZSIMMONS

In this record I have attempted to present as many as possible of the ancestors of Willis and all of his descendants to date.

Willis⁶ FitzSimmons (Joseph⁵ Patrick⁴ Thomas³ Patrick² Patrick¹) son of Joseph FitzSimmons and Mary Anne Ellis, was born at the old Ellis farm near Bagdad, Kentucky, 27 Feb. 1854, d. 4 Apr. 1930, Petaluma, Calif. Mary Anne Ellis d. 12 Dec. 1855. She had a personal slave who cared for Mary Bell and Willis, after Mary Anne's death. Evidently Joseph went to Indiana for a time and married 1 April 1857, ~~Mary~~ Jane Layton. My father, Alvah, remembers his father Willie telling how much he loved the colored Mammy and how he cried when he was told that now "Joe" was coming to take him away. Willis made the trip by ox-cart with his father to Louisburg, Kansas 1870 and grew up in Miami County.

31 Dec. 1878 Willis FitzSimmons m. Adeline Hayes, b. 18 Oct. 1858, Belmont Co. Ohio, d. 29 Sept. 1934, Hutchinson, Kansas. I saw her only a few times. She was a large woman and very friendly.

- * Willis FitzSimmons was in the famous run for land on the Cherokee Strip Sept. 16, 1893, but failed to make it in time to stake a claim. He made the run from Arkansas City, Kansas. He stood in line 48 hours to get registered there, then ran from Shiloh Indian Reservation. The family lived for a time in Elk County and went to Oklahoma to homestead in Harper County in 1904, between Buffalo, the county seat, and Doby Springs.

They first lived in a dugout, as did all the first ones into the area, while they were building their sod house. This is rolling country, with some arroyos, and I can remember as a very small girl, visiting there and being picked up by the wind and would have tumbled into the arroyo except that a grown uncle grabbed me at the edge of the arroyo and took me to safety. The water on this homestead was a deep well of sulphur water and I still remember the horrible taste of it and what it did to the food cooked in it. The sod houses were warm in winter and cool in summer, much like the adobes of the Southwest. A few years later they built a nice two-story frame house some distance from the old "Dugout" and "Soddy." Willie's sons, Elmer, John and Otto filed for homesteads at Woodward, Oklahoma.

In 1920 they sold the ranch in Oklahoma, went back to Indiana and

RESEARCH REPORT

ON THE NATURE OF THE CRYSTALLINE PHASE OF POLYETHYLENE

BY J. D. BAKER, JR. AND R. W. L. MCGOWAN

RECEIVED JANUARY 15, 1954

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

AND THE NATIONAL BUREAU OF STANDARDS, WASHINGTON, D. C.

ABSTRACT

The crystalline phase of polyethylene has been studied by x-ray diffraction and infrared spectroscopy.

The results show that the crystalline phase is a single crystal.

The unit cell dimensions are $a = 0.357$ nm, $b = 0.577$ nm, $c = 0.357$ nm.

The space group is $P6_3/mmc$.

The density is 0.998 g/cm³.

The melting point is 139°C .

The crystalline phase is stable at room temperature.

The crystalline phase is stable in air.

The crystalline phase is stable in water.

The crystalline phase is stable in organic solvents.

The crystalline phase is stable in acids.

The crystalline phase is stable in bases.

The crystalline phase is stable in oxidizing agents.

The crystalline phase is stable in reducing agents.

The crystalline phase is stable in light.

The crystalline phase is stable in heat.

The crystalline phase is stable in cold.

The crystalline phase is stable in all conditions.

Kansas on visits, then bought a house in Rocky Ford, Colorado, where they lived until moving to Petaluma, California in 1923. He lived there until his death 4 April 1930. I remember my grandfather as gray-haired, with blue eyes and very kind to his oldest grandchild. He was quiet and worked very hard all of his life.

Descendants of Willis and Adeline Hayes FitzSimmons:

- I. Elmer⁷ (Willis⁶ Joseph⁵ Patrick⁴ Thomas³ Patrick² Patrick¹) FitzSimmons, b. 27 Sept. 1879, Miami County, Kansas, m. 13 Aug. 1911, New Lancaster, Kansas, Ella Burson, b. 1870, d. 1949, Scott City, Kansas. No issue. They homesteaded at Doby Springs, Okla. and were there for a number of years before moving to Scott City.
- II. Alvah⁷ FitzSimmons (Willis⁶ Joseph⁵ Patrick⁴ Thomas³ Patrick² Patrick¹), b. 2 Dec. 1880 on a farm southeast of Paola, Kansas, lived at Louisburg and near there. Went to Elk County Kansas for a time, also Chautauqua County; worked on the Osage Indian Cherokee Nation Reservation in Oklahoma in 1900, just south of Edna, Okla. Worked for Frank Glendenning, Louisburg, 1901. Then to James M. Biggs to work at New Lancaster, Kansas. At New Lancaster he m. 24 Dec. 1902, Flora Esther Biggs, b. Louisburg, Kansas 18 Sept. 1884, daughter of James M. Biggs and Flora Jane Bennett. My mother is a wonderful woman, and more about her in the forthcoming Biggs book.

They lived on the farm at New Lancaster until 1918, when they sold and built a house between Paola and Osawatomie at the foot of John Brown's Lookout. We had one of the first privately owned herds of Registered Holstein cattle in the state of Kansas. From there they came to Colorado in 1922, back to Kansas, where they lived in McPherson, Garden City and Clay Center. 1934 they sold their store in Clay Center and went to Everett, Washington, where they lived until 1936, when they returned to Colorado Springs, and were with Colorado College until they retired in the summer of 1950. Since that time they have lived at 424 East Del Norte, Colorado Springs.

My father, Alvah FitzSimmons, stands five feet nine inches tall, with brown hair--now grey--hazel eyes and light build, with one of the sweetest smiles that ever lit a human face. He is very gentle and speaks softly. He has a quiet wit--a wonderful sense of humor in spite of many years of ill health. He is an artist with his hands, doing everything very meticulously and wherever he has lived he has always improved the place and its surroundings. ISSUE:

TO THE EDITOR:
I am writing to you regarding the results of my experiments on the reaction of C_2H_2 with CuCl_2 in the presence of NH_3 . The reaction proceeds quantitatively at room temperature to form a complex which I have identified as $\text{Cu}(\text{C}_2\text{H}_2)_2 \cdot 2\text{NH}_3$.

The complex is a white crystalline solid which is stable in air and does not decompose at room temperature. It is soluble in water and in dilute acids. The infrared spectrum of the complex shows a strong absorption band at 2100 cm^{-1} , characteristic of the C_2H_2 ligand.

The complex is formed by the reaction of C_2H_2 with CuCl_2 in the presence of NH_3 . The reaction is reversible and the complex can be decomposed by heating or by treatment with strong acids.

The complex is a new compound and its structure is not yet known. It is of interest because it is the first example of a complex of C_2H_2 with a transition metal.

REDDING

Reuben Redding m. 26 Jan. 1789, Farquier Co., Virginia, Elizabeth Roberts; George Roberts witness. I did not have this material when the Redding record was published in the Colorado Genealogist, p.38, Vol. 22, April 1961. Reuben and Elizabeth went from Farquier Co., Va. to Shelby County, Kentucky.

ADDITIONAL PERKINS MATERIAL

Excerpts from a letter to M. P. Ellis, 1015 S. 30th St., Birmingham, Alabama, from Will Hall, U. S. Naval Hospital, Pensacola, Florida, March 1, 1962. Will Hall, author of Perkins Books.

. . . "Well--now we get down to the three marriages of Nicholas Perkins. The Ufton Court family is given in detail in the book: The History of Ufton Court, of the parish of Oton, in the County of Berks, and of the Perkins family; compiled from Ancient Records by A. Mary Sharp, London, 1892.

The outline you give skips a generation apparently--#3 John Perkins and Margaret Collee had a son Thomas Perkins who married Dorothy More and they were the parents of #4 Richard Perkins who married Elizabeth Mompesson. Thomas Perkins and Dorothy More also had a son William Perkins who married Anne Welles and this latter couple had a son Francis Perkins who married Anna Plowden. Francis Perkins and Anna Plowden had a son Francis Perkins born 1586, d. 1661 who married Margaret Eyston.

Well the Ufton book goes on and on giving some of these lines in great detail. But no where does it mention a Nicholas Perkins and there is absolutely nothing in it to connect that family with the Virginia family.

However the Ufton book does mention an Arthur Perkins who presumably was a nephew of Richard Perkins who married Elizabeth Mompesson.

Another book that Miss Stone saw and read carefully was The Registers of Christ Church, Newgate, 1538-1754, edited by Willoughby A. Littledale, London, 1895 (Vol. 21 of Harleian Society Publications).

That book gives the baptisms of the children of one Arthur Perkins, a leatherseller and later haberdasher. Among his children was Nicholas Perkins, born Sept. 5, 1572. Other children were Arthur, Catherine, Elizabeth, Sara, Richard, Robert, Henry, Arthur, Edward. The records for the period 1588-1656 are missing.

The book also mentions that Constant Harding was buried in 1678 and that Ellyn, daughter of Nicholas Hardyng was born 1571.

Miss Stone considered the possibility that the Arthur Perkins listed here was the same as the one mentioned in the Ufton Court Book. And she also thought it possible that the Nicholas Perkins born 1572 was the one who came to Virginia. I grant that both possibilities are possible but there is no proof to support this. Miss Stone was also interested in the Harding references since she knew the Hardings and Perkinses were related in Virginia. And since Constantine was a Perkins name it seemed logical to assume that it came from the Constantine Harding who was buried in 1678. Possibly he had a daughter who married Nicholas Perkins. You see how these ideas get started.

A third book Miss Stone refers to is: Genealogia Bedfordiensis by Frederick Augustus Blaydes, London, 189-. It lists the records of the church at Stangridge. According to it on Jan. 16, 1613, Nicholas Perkins and Jane Iremonger were married. They had a daughter Jane baptized 1624 and a daughter Elizabeth baptized 1633.

Miss Stone naturally considered the possibility that it was this Nicholas Perkins who came to Virginia. But how reconcile this with the theory that he married a Harding in London? Well, it could be possible if that Nicholas Perkins married twice. And, of course, it was known in Virginia that the wife of Nicholas Perkins was Mary Parker. So naturally this would be a third marriage. Of course, we know now that Nicholas Perkins' widow Mary married Dr. Parker and there is nothing to indicate what her maiden name was.

All of these books are available and today there are many, many others. The library in Boston has a lot of the London church registers. If you pick them up at random and look in them for Perkins you see page after page of listings. I am sure that the name was about as common then as it is today.

Hence I'd like something a little more than just a similarity of names to establish identity. I don't think Miss Stone really claimed it to be so--she started out with a theory, came to believe it."

This is the final installment of the FitzSimmons material to date. If anyone can correct or add to any of these records, the compiler will appreciate the information.

Note: We are indebted to Mrs. Hathaway for supplying us with copies of the page of photographs appearing in this issue--the first photographs we have used in The Genealogist.

Redding, p.56: Reuben Redding m. 26 Jan. 1789, Farquier Co., Va., Elizabeth Roberts, George Roberts (witness). Who were ancestors of George Roberts?

Kenneth FitzSimmons wrote in Jan. 1963:
David Robinson, son, b. latter part of 1962.

Dennis and Claudia Winfrey had child b. 1962.

I wish to thank Mr. James Ray Andrews, Sr., of Dallas, Texas, for this additional material on the Maxey family:

..."Edward and Susannah Maxey came to the Virginia Colony, from France, via Great Britain, following the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685. They were among the founders of the Manakin Huguenot Colony. This Colony was founded in a portion of Henrico County, Virginia, which in 1727 became Goochland County, and in 1777 became Powhatan County. (Ref.: TEXAS CHARTER MEMBERS OF THE HUGUENOT SOCIETY, FOUNDERS OF MANAKIN, COLONY OF VIRGINIA, VOL. I) Edward Maxey was identified as Edward Maxey Jr.

Edward Maxey, Jr., was born in France, and died in Goochland County, Va., in 1740. (Ref.: Deed and Will Book #3 p.398 and Book 4, page 212, Goochland Co. Va.) He married Susannah, who was born in France and died in Goochland County, Va., in 1743.

Both their wills are on record as cited above, and they named their children including the following:

John Maxey, married Sarah Sampson
Edward Maxey, m. Judith Ford. (Faure)
Walter Maxey, b. in Henrico Co., 1719, d. in Franklin Co., Va., 1791.
Elizabeth Maxey, married (1st) Wm. Barnes, (2nd) John Radford.

Two other sons were named in the wills but they are not here pertinent. The Andrews lines descend from Edward and Susannah Maxey, thru another son (or grandson) Radford Maxey, not here mentioned."

REDDING

Additional Redding notes from Mrs. A. P. Kannapel, 1608 No. Peoria Street, Peoria, Illinois, received Dec. 1962.

"I descend from Sarah Redding, b. 1743, m. Peter Martin, Rev. Soldier. Her brother was the famous Joseph Redding who preached at Great Crossings Baptist Church in Kentucky, following Rev. John L. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor's Memoirs says of Joseph in part: 'Redding was born 1750 in Farquier Co. Va., near Germantown. His parents died young leaving seven small orphans who were raised by their Uncle William Redding in low circumstances. They were raised Episcopalians'. He mentioned Isaac Redding, an older brother.

...In the Kentucky records I found a William Redding, wife Ann, in Scott County. He applied for a pension 22 Jan. 1813, and she made application in the years 1815, 1817, 1820. I found among my notes that another William Redding, Rev. Sold. died and is buried in Georgia. ... I have a photostat of Timothy... We think he was the father of our Sarah, Joseph, Isaac, Reuben and the others..

Does this mean that possibly William, who died in Shelby Co. 1804 was Uncle and not father to Reuben and Timothy? Since Reuben and Timothy were executors of William's estate it has been assumed that he was their father. Mr. F. W. George, famous genealogist, worked on this line over twenty years ago, and felt this to be a fact. If anyone has other proof, please send it to the compiler of this book.
